

1413. e. 12

THE
MUSIC SPEECH,

Spoken at the
PUBLIC COMMENCEMENT IN CAMBRIDGE,

JULY the 6th, 1714.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

LIBRARY

PHYSICS

1910

1910

1910

1910

1910

THE
MUSIC SPEECH,

Spoken at the Public Commencement

IN CAMBRIDGE,

JULY the 6th, 1714.

By ROGER LONG, M. A.

Fellow of Pembroke-Hall.

Qui placere se studeat bonis Quamplurimis, & minime multos ledere. Ter.

LONDON,

Printed, and Sold by J. MORPHEW near Stationers-Hall, and C. CROWNFIELD in Cambridge. 1714. Price Six-pence.

MUSIC SPEECH

Public Committee

CAMPBELL DO

44.
11. 26.
162.

*Dignissime D^{ne} D^{ne} Procancellarie, Nobilissima Juventus, Veneranda Capita,
Hospites presertim ab Oxonio gratissimi,
Viri gravissimi,
Corona florentissima,*

QUOD toties ab immortalī numine pre-cati sumus, eo tempore, cū vel apertā infensissimorum hostium audaciā, vel occultis amicitiā simulantium insidiis, in summo bo-norum omnium discrimine, de rebus nostris tantum non conclamatum esse videbatur, ut a furore Fanatico incolumes, ea securitate frue-remur quam vel disciplinæ nostræ ratio postulet, vel Legum a Majoribus latarum Autoritas polliceatur: id tandem Annæ pientissimæ indefessus in Populum Anglicanum Amor, Senatusq; pro-

providiffimi vigilantia elaboravit, effecit, atq;
 si rerum humanarum fors id ferre possit æter-num fore spondit.

Non est enim in presentiâ quod vobis gratulemur unum solum atq; alterum caput Hydræ istius Fanaticæ resectum esse, quæ virus suum in utramque Academiam, in Episcopos, in Principes nostros, evomere solebat; sed profligatas prorsus ejus vires prostratasq; sed succifos nervos, ipsamque oppressam penitus fractamque atque animam simul cum veneno expirantem.

Non autem ideo de reportata ab istiusmodi hostibus victoriâ triumphamus, quòd ab eorum Armis si aperto Marte dimicandum fuisset, nobis erat magnopere timendum: testantur fatis vel fracta toties vel in ipsos retorta eorum tela, quàm imbelles sint erroris in Veritatem, Schismatis in Fidem, superstitionis in Religionem impetus.

Verum

Verum enimvero quos iusto certamine aggredientes & meritò spernere, & facilè superare possis, ab iisdem vel dolo decipi, vel fictæ amicitiae larvâ deludi, haudquaquam novum est : neque adeo ex imbecillitate suâ & ener-vatis viribus homini cordato estimandus est istiusmodi hostis, qui dolo an virtute res geratur nil pensi habeat, quippe quod qui infirmior est, quàm ut vel arcum tendere, vel hastam vibrare, vel gladio decertare valeat, idem ta-men vel clàm admotis facibus incendium excitare poterit, vel occulto pugione latus perfodere, vel proditrice manu venenum propinare.

Adeo nunquam satis a Danaorum insidiis ca-veri potest ! Tanti refert ne quando viperam in sinu foveas, ne quidem mortuam !

Et quidem de hujus seculi Schismaticis nequid detrimenti Rebus nostris afferre possent, satis cautum esse videbatur, ea Lege quæ a Senatu, a Magistratu, a Muneribus publicis arcendos esse

esse sancivit. Hoc unum Senatoribus nostris restabat optandum, ut quorum minas enarmassent, mucrones a jugulis nostris rejecissent, gladiosque in optimum quemque districtos retulissent, eos aut saltem eorum filios, in posterum nocendi etiam voluntate privarent. Non enim desperandum est venturis temporibus, acerrimos propugnatores Academias, fidissimos subditos Monarchiam, pientissimos filios Ecclesiam, ex eo hominum genere inventuram, qui tanta hucusque rerum bonarum imbiberunt odia, ut ad concitandum in Ecclesiâ Schisma, in Republica Seditionem, non tam disciplina edocti quam a natura facti, non instituti sed imputi esse viderentur.

Sic Annæ Cordi est hostes superare, ut ex atrocissimo bello Pax, e crudelissimo diffidio Concordia, ex acerbissimo odio Amor oriatur. Hinc eo ipso die, quo Lege latâ claudendas esse Schismaticorum scholas statutum est, ne in Ecclesiæ sinum redeuntibus deesset locus, jacta sunt novorum Templorum fundamenta.

En quos Triumphos Anna Pacifica sibi decerni postulet, quæ Trophæa Statui ! Non arcus triumphales longâ titulorum serie aut gentium devictarum imagine superbas, non ingentes Palatiorum moles ex everfarum urbium ruinis congestas, miserorum atque innocentium sanguine & lacrimis sædatis : sed surgentia ad cognata astra Tempa, simplici Majestate, cultum veri numinis intus celebrandum imitantia. Sed quò feror ? Annæ nomen ubi aures personuit, nec opinantem rapuit tantarum laudum pelagus.

Vellunt aurem uti video Sophista ægre ferentes se tam diu lactatos esse & vana jocorum spe productos, at quid agam, aut quò me vertam ? Ex quo enim sensi Procancellarium in animo habere lucidissimas hæcse fœminarum constellationes de proprio cœlo deturbare, atq; Cancellis cogere, & Decus Theatro nostro, & sales perorantibus, & acumen opponentibus, & calcar, quo nonnunquam opus habent, Doctõribus defore videbam : nam quum committuntur inter se hostiles disputantium acies, ubi Capita omnes ingenii vires exhauserint, quas sensistis, quàm sint exiguæ, ubi inter dumeta spinasque Theologiæ non sine multo sudore versantur, in quibus se non inficiantur mediocriter esse versatos, quam fortitudinem, quos animos adderet in Turneamento Academico digladiantibus Quixotis nostris tot Dulcinearum aspectus; at in præsentia (pro dolor!) e longinquo tantum atq; id limis aspectare cogimur. Adeo ut plurimos existimem. Regio Theologiæ Professori sua invidere conspicilla hoc in loco non aures solum adjuvantia. Nam plerisque vestrùm fat scio confusa ista lux e Cancellis emissa hîc viam quandam Lacteam re-præsentare videtur, illic nebulosum præsepe. Verum Galileus ille noster singulas stellas, seu fixæ sint, siue erraticæ, seu nativa luce splendeant, seu mutuatitia, distinctè rimatur, satellites, siquos habeant, detegit; varios observat motus, nunc directas, nunc retrogradas, nunc stationarias conspicit. Nunc veloces, nunc tardas. Varias Phases notat, quasdam plenas, quasdam gibbosas. Varios aspectus & posi-tiones

tiones deprehendit, alias in oppositione, alias in conjunctione, nonnullas etiam ex aliarum interpositione eclipsin patientes. Quod ad maculas attinet, major est distantia, quàm ut per crassam hanc Atmosphæram possint detegi.

Quod siquid mea valuissent vota, pro veteri more his etiam Comitibus supra Doctorum capita tanquam tot auspicata sydera fulsissent fœminæ, sed procancellarius cæteroquin humanissimus his precibus aures præbuit penitus obferatas.

Non faxa nudis furdiora navitis

Neptūnus alto tundit hybernus salo.

Si causam quæritis, cur stellæ hæ adeo longè a Meridiano nostro sint deductæ, ut tantum non infra horizontem occultentur, paucis accipite. Deprehendit Procancellarius, quæ est in Astrologia peritia, postremis Comitibus cum erant in summa altitudine, seu, ut loquuntur Astrologi, culminatione, multas Calamitates toti Academiæ infixisse. Nam quædam earum erant calidæ & siccæ, & intolerabili æstu sitique torrebant sophistas, quædam aqueæ & humidæ, & imbre falso irrigabant Oxonienses, quædam terreæ & melancholicæ, & seniores Collegiorum socios inclinabant ad morbum hypochondriacum, aliæ erant igneæ & cholericæ, & bellum rixasque ciebant inter disputantes, aliæ frigidæ & phlegmaticæ, & maligno aspectu Doctores respiciebant, nonnullæ sed paucae admodum benignioris naturæ divitias & lucrum pollicebantur, sed illæ radios in Commensales potissimum projiciebant & semper habentes in Horoscopo Mercurium crumenimulgos Bedellos. Habetis Academici causas cur cum tot Fœminæ huc.

Spectatum veniant, veniant spectentur ut ipsæ

In locum tam obscurum & a vestro conspectu remotum sint detrusæ : ut autem videatis

videatis quàm strenuè ego earum causam egi, hem vobis petitionem a me, illarum nomine, Procancellario, sed quod cum dolore dicendum est, frustra oblatam.

THE

multis quibus scire ego carum carum
est. Item vobis posuerunt a me illam omino. Incancellano, sed quod cum dolore dicendum est. Istam oblationem.

41. h. a. p.
o. p.
p. 1. 3.

Incancellano, sed quod cum dolore

dicendum est. Istam oblationem.

Incancellano, sed quod cum dolore

dicendum est. Istam oblationem.

Incancellano, sed quod cum dolore

dicendum est. Istam oblationem.

(11)
THE humble Petition of the Ladies, who are all ready to be eaten up with the Spleen,

To think they are to be lock'd up in the Chancel, where they can neither see nor be seen ;

But must sit i' the Dumps by themselves all stew'd and pent up,

And can only peep through the Lattice like so many Chickens in a Coop ;

Whereas last Commencement the Ladies had a Gallery provided near enough,

To see the Heads sleep, and the Fellow-Commoners take Snuff.

Tis

'Tis true for every Particular how 'twas order'd then we can't so certainly know,

Because none of us can remember so long as Sixteen Years ago ;

Yet we believe they were more civil to the Ladies
then, and good Reason why,

For if we all stay'd at home your Commencement wouldn't be worth a Fly :

For at Oxford last Year this is certainly Matter of Fact,

That the Sight of the Ladies and the Music made the best Part of their Act.

Now you should consider some of us have been at a very great Expence

To rig our selves out, in order to see the Doctors commence :

We've been forc'd with our Manteau-makers to hold many a Consultation,

To know whether Mourning or Colours would be most like to be in Fashion ;

We've

We've sent to Town to know what Kind of Heads and Ruffles the Ladies wore;

And have rais'd the Price of Whalebone higher than 'twas before ;

We've got Intelligence from Church, the Park,
the Front-box and the Ring,

And to grace St. Mary's now wou'dn't make our Cloaths up in the Spring.

In Flounces and Furbelows many Experiments have been try'd,

And many an old Gown and Petticoat new scour'd and dy'd.

Some of us for these three Months have scarce been able to rest,

For studying what sort of Complexion wou'd be come us best ;

And several of us have almost pinch'd our selves to Death with going strait lac'd,

That we might look fuller in the Chest, and more slender in the Waste.

C

And

And isn't it now intolerable after all this Pains and Cost,

To be coop'd up out of Sight, and have all our Finery lost ?

Such cross ill-natur'd Doings as these are even a Saint wou'd vex,

To see a Vice-Chancellor so barbarous to those of his own Sex.

We've endeavour'd to know the Reason of all this to the utmost of our Power,

What has made the Doctors contrive to take us all down a Peg lower,

And we find 'tis only because last time their Wigs were disoblig'd by a warm Shower.

As for that Misfortune the Ladies may e'en thank the Prevaricator,

Who was so extremely arch they were ready to burst their Sides with Laughter,

But now we have all got well hoop'd, and can very easily hold Water.

LADIES,

LADIES, You see by this Petition,
 How much I pitied your Condition;
 And had the Doctors thought it safe,
 You'd had a better Place by half:
 But tis too late now to complain,
 I was your Advocate in vain;
 Howe'er you may by my Assistance,
 Know what's been doing at a distance.

The Doctor there, now so smugg'd up to win ye,
 Yesterday play'd the Part of Nicolini;
 'An excellent Performer, though I fear
 You thought his Cat-call wasn't quite so clear,
Nic oft the Lyon, who has at him flown,
 Like any London-Prentice has o'erthrown;
 But all that Battle's nothing at the Opera,
 To th' Doctors here with Heresy, Schism, and Popery:

Nic charm'd you in a Tongue not understood ;
 Here you had Latin, is n't that as good ?

With Ring and Kifs the second Act you saw
 Our new Professor married to the Law :
 'Tis such a Shrew that few wou'd care to venture,
 But for that all-prevailing Charm, the Jointure,
 He can assist, if you desire, to wed
 When by the Almanack it is forbid ;
 Or Licence grant without the Bans to marry,
 If for three Holidays you're 'rest to tarry.
 For those Transgressions which the Law thinks meet
 With Wand be expiated and white Sheet,
 He can procure for Criminals of Fashion
 The easier Punishment of Commutation.

Our Physick Doctor next took his Degree,
 In hopes the Title may enlarge the Fee,

The Ladies Doctor— let him feel your Pulse,
 I'm sure he need desire no Business else.
 He hopes to hear Complaints from some of you, Doctor I find my self I can't tell how!
 At first your Case will put him to a stand,
 Till the Broad-peice is slid into his Hand,
 Then he considers— and there's all the Reason
 To think the Bath may do you good this Season;
 You soon resolve to try a Course once more
 From which you found such Benefit before:
 This shows your Ailment rightly understood,
 Nothing but Company had done you good.
 And don't you now like that Physitian best,
 That in prescribing hits the Patients Taste?
 But since the Vulgar can't hope to command Fees worthy of a Graduate Doctor's Hand,
 He has for publick Good made such Provision,
 Every one here may be her own Physitian;

And

And I, though not equipt in gaudy Jacket,
Have undertaken to retail his Packet.

Are any of you troubled with
The Scurvey that destroys the Teeth;
And often causes stinking Breath;
In short, from whose prolific Womb
Almost all our Diseases come.
Do any of ye suffer ever Obstructions in the Spleen or Liver, Weakness of Stomack, Back or Reins,
Rheumatick or Nephritick Pains,
Colicks, Consumptions, Dropsies, Itches, Jaundies, Stone, Gravel, Cramps or Stitches;
Are any here afflicted by Melancholy they can't tell why;
Does any one the Megrim dread,
Or the Vertigo in the Head,

The Doctor here by me assures ye He'll take no Mony till he cures ye.
 He quickly can remove the Smart
 Of th' Palpitation of the Heart;
 And what the hardest Part of th' Trade is,
 Of Fits o'th' Mother cure the Ladies.
 Is any Husband here chagrin
 Because his Wife has got the Spleen,
 The Doctor tells you in a trice
 Whence the Distemper took its Rise,
 Whether the Coach too long has wore,
 Or wants a Pair of Horses more;
 Whether she has at Ombre lost,
 Or is outshin'd by some new Toast;
 Has by Gallant been left i' th' Lurch,
 Or some Body took her Place at Church;
 Her Fav'rite Bason has let fall,
 Or wa'n't invited to a Ball,
 Or silver Tea-kettle was shown
 Of newer Fashion than her own.

Is

Is any one in mortal Fear
 She shou'dn't have a Son and Heir;
 The Doctor a Prescription hath Wou'd save a Journey to the Bath;
 Whereas Carbuncles sometimes vex
 The Faces of the tender Sex,
 You've his Cosmetic Secret here,
 Wou'd ev'n a Face of Wainscot clear;
 Take away Sun-burn, Tan, or Morpew,
 And Freckles be they many or few:
 And make a Cambridge Beauty bright,
 At Distance or by Candle-light.
 The Doctor can a Dye prepare,
 To change the Colour of the Hair,
 Teeth when decay'd draw out or clean,
 And artificial ones set in.
 Are any here disorder'd by
 The Tweer or Rolling of the Eye,
 Not Bickerstaff cou'd cure you better,
 By's famous Circumspection-Water.

He has an excellent Receipt
 To make young Damsels eat their Meat,
 Leave Chalk and Oatmeal, and such Trash,
 To diet upon wholesome Flesh.
 Besides his Skill in Physiology,
 He has been Student in Astrology ;
 Can tell, if any wants to know
 How her Affairs are like to go,
 Whether the Cards will her befriend,
 Or how a Suit of Law will end.
 He can, by Help of magick Glass,
 Show a young Wench her Sweet-heart's Face :
 I th' stars or on her Hand can read
 How long she's like to live a Maid.
 He can with Ease recover soon
 The Thimble lost, or silver Spoon ;
 And help you to find out the Thief,
 As well as by the Sheers and Sieve.

D

Should

Should an old Spark inconstant prove,
 By Spells he can renew his Love;
 His Blood with Flames rekindled sieze,
 As if he'd drunk Cantharides.
 He has an Amulet or Charm,
 Put it but on, you'll take no Harm,
 Though you should hear the Schriech-Owl shriek,
 Or Cricket chirp, or Death-watch strike;
 From the ill Omen it would screen,
 Should you at Table make Thirteen;
 No Danger need you fear at all,
 Should you the Salt-seller let fall,
 Or hear the Raven thrice cry Pork,
 Or lay across your Knife and Fork.
 Alas! that he no Herbs can find
 To ease the Pain of a love-sick Mind!

But

But there's no Help in that Disease,
 From Galen or Hippocrates;
 All can be done on that Occasion,
 Is gaining th' Object of your Passion;
 Should that impossible appear,
 Then change your Mind, and fix elsewhere;
 For this Probatum none can doubt,
 One Nail will drive another out.

Well then, since here (a Sight that's very rare)
 Men much more plentiful than Women are,
 Out of this Company, 'tis my Advice,
 You unprovided Ladies take your Choice.
 Here is Variety enough, you have
 The gay, the wise, the witty and the grave.
 How do our Proctors there your Fancies hit?
 The one for Beauty fam'd, the other Wit.

I shou'd the Oxford Doctor first have shewn,
 But that we've Doctors plenty of our own ;
 Besides, he's little need of our good Wishes,
 Of whom so many of you long for Kisses.

Some here, since Scarlet has such Charms to win ye,

For Scarlet Gown have laid out many a Guinea.

Though, I shou'd think, you had far better
 wed

The young in Sable, than the old in Red.

There's one amongst our Doctors may be found,
 Values his Face above a Thousand Pound ;

But if you stand, he'll something 'bate perhaps,

Provided that you don't insist on Shapes :

Some of our Dons, in Hopes to make you truckle,

Have for this two Months laid their Wigs in buckle ;

If

If clear-starch'd Band and clean Gloves won't prevail,

Can the lac'd Gown or Cap of Velvet fail?

What though th' Squire be awkward yet and simple,

You'd better take him here than from the Temple.

Amongst that fine Parterre of handsome Faces,

Do any like a Joynture in Parnassus?

Upon us Fellows your Affections fix,

But then you can't expect your Coach and Six;

What if we're not o'er-stock'd with Land or Money,

We'd gladly settle ——— our Affections on ye,

And then such Constancy 'mongst us appears,

That some of us can court for twenty Years:

But

But most of you, I fear, wou'd be but loth
So long before you dine to lay the Cloth.

Will Beans and Butterflies then please your Fancies,
Well vers'd in Birthnights, Novels and Romances, Scandal, Plays, Opera's, Fashions, Songs and Dances,

We'll shew you those that most politely can,
Or tap the Snuff-box, or gallant the Fan.

Or do your Inclinations bid you fix
Upon some learn'd Adept in Politicks,

We've those wou'd almost stun ye with the Din

Of who's to be turn'd out and who put in ;

Those that can can tell you how you ought to like

The new Canal that's cutting at Mardyke ;

How

How far the Bill does th' Toleration touch,
 Or if we by our Trade shou'd get too much,
 What Umbrage it may give our Friends the Dutch ;

How many Grains must to each Pow'r be giv'n
 To make the Balance of all Europe even :
 In short, no Difficulties of State but vanish
 When once their Noses are well cramm'd with Spanish.

I've but one Offer more for you to choose,
 And that is such I'm sure you can't refuse ;
 Our Youth of Quality— ay, there's a Charm
 The coldest Virgins Heart will quickly warm ;
 Which of you wou'dn't be well pleas'd to sit
 In the gilt Chariot grac'd with Coronet,

Dia-

Diamonds all o'er in the Front-box appear,
 And have the grateful Sound salute your Ear
 Where-e'er you go— My Lady Flounce's Servant
there.

But whilst we thus lash the * Coquet and Prude,
 Let us not seem to modest Merit rude ;
 In blaming Vice we do the Virtuous praise,
 Thus Foils the Diamonds Lustre higher raise ;
 Thus Shadows stronger make the Lights appear,
 And Venus near an Ethiop seems more fair.
 To you, ye Fair and Chaste, whose Eyes inspire
 Though a resistless yet an awful Fire,

* N. B. I han't meddled much with the Coquet or Prude under those Characters, but I wanted a Rime to rude.

The Muse wou'd fain her humble Tribute bring,
 Such Virtues honour, and such Beauties sing,
 But for the daring Flight too feeble finds her Wing :•

In every thing but her good Wishes poor,
 Of them she gladly heaps a boundless Store.
 May every rising Sun each circling Year
 To Joys untasted be a Harbinger ;
 Pleasures unmix'd the happy Hours beguile,
 And Love and Fortune on you ever smile ;
 May Truth and Honour only know you kind,
 And every Marcia here a Juba find.
 May every Fair—

But see the Sons of Harmony prepare
 A Feast might entertain a Cherub's Ear :
 Into such Notes Israel's prophetick King
 Of old awaken'd every sounding String,
 When in like Numbers Priests and Levites spoke,
 Of Salem's Temple the Foundation shook.

E

Attend

Attend ye Winds—— the hallow'd Sound convey

O'er Heav'n's high Arch to Realms of lasting Day;

There the Almighty's vengeful Pow'r withstand,
And wrest the Thunder from his threatning Hand;

Call inexhausted Show'rs of Blessings down,
And rain 'em all on pious ANNA's Throne,

F I N I S.

